Company at its sole discretion may grant an extension on the nominated delivery date. If the Contractor fails to deliver Goods by the specified date, the Company is entitled in its discretion to terminate the Purchase Order or Service Order either in whole or in part for default under Clause 6.2 and/or deduct monies due to the Contractor as liquidated damages (a genuine pre-estimate of the Company's damages and/or an assessment of the Company's legitimate commercial interests, not as a penalty, in the amount specified on the front of the Purchase Order or Service Order, for each week or part thereof by which delivery exceeds the specified delivery date).

7.5.3 Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, Company shall not be liable to Contractor for any sum which would otherwise be payable to Contractor which Company has withheld from payment or paid to the person or authority entitled to that sum in accordance with Company's reasonable understanding of its duty under any law or regulation. Any such payment will, for the purposes of this Agreement, be deemed to have been paid by Company to the Contractor and the payment thereof to the person or authority entitled to that sum will be and be deemed to be a complete discharge of Company's liabilities to the Contractor in respect of the amount so paid. 9.1 Contractor is an independent Contractor. No person engaged in performing the Work shall be deemed to be an employee or agent of the Company for any purpose whatsoever. Notwithstanding this the Contractor will look only to the Company for the due performance of the Agreement and nothing contained in this Agreement will impose any liability upon, or entitle the Contractor to commence any proceedings against any joint venture participant other than the Company. Any losses incurred by the Company's joint venture participants as a result of the Contractor's breach of this Agreement shall be recoverable by the Company as if they were the Company's own losses.
